December 10, 2014-January 10, 2015

Opening reception: Friday, December 10, 7pm-11pm

To inaugurate the launch of our new Flat Files Program, City Limits is excited to announce Making Space, an exhibition highlighting 6 of the artists in the program: Sarah Hotchkiss, Mary Anne Kluth, David Lasley, Jodie Mack, Sam Mell, and John Zane Zappas. These artists, working in a diverse range of methods and media, use 2-D works as an important aspect of their otherwise 3-D or time-based art practices.

Works from Making Space, as well as other works in the flatfiles program, will be available for viewing and purchase in-gallery and at City Limit's new online store (under construction!). Selected works include digital and physical collage, video and film stills, photography, drawing, painting on paper and mylar, sculpture and more.
