

CITY LIMITS

Transplant

Jon Gourley

July 20 – July 27, 2012

Opening reception: Friday, April 6, 8pm-10pm

For one week, artist Jon Gourley's apartment bedroom, prior to a Winter 2011 eviction by his former landlord, will be re-created at City Limits. The "bedroom" will include all of the artist's possessions, including furniture and works collected from other artists which used to hang in Gourley's former apartment.

The installation will occur within the City Limits gallery space, an apartment living room itself.

Jon Gourley is a San Francisco-based artist. He holds a BS and BA from University of Iowa and a MFA from San Francisco Art Institute.
